Head Coach AL Lavan

Al Lavan wrapped up his fifth season at the helm of the Delaware State Hornets, winning two road games to end the year and guide his team to a tie for second place in the MEAC standings. One year removed from the school's sixth MEAC title, the Hornets recorded the team's first losing season (5-6) since Lavan's first year but, registered their fifth-straight winning conference record (5-3).

With the 2008 conference record of 5-3, the Hornets' head coach has never had a losing record in MEAC play.

In five seasons at DSU, Lavan has posted an overall record of 34-22, including a 29-10 mark in MEAC contests. He has led the team to winning records in three of the last four seasons. In the three years prior to his arrival, the Hornets were 10-24 overall and 6-17 in the league. Delaware State had just one winning season in the eight years before Lavan took the job. Lavan is ranked No. 3 all-time for most coaching victories at DSU (34).

Lavan has a 36-23 career record as a head coach, including a 2-1 mark during an interim stint at Eastern Michigan in 2003.

Last season, DSU recorded a 5-6 record (5-3 MEAC). Opening the year with a thrilling 35-28 overtime win versus Florida A&M on ESPN in front of a national audience, the Hornets hovered around .500 mark for most of the season. The team experienced an uncharacteristic 2-4 record at Alumni Stadium, marking only the second losing record at home for Lavan (18-9 all-time). Despite a sub-.500 record, the Hornets finished the season strong with two key conference road victories, including a 21-point comeback at Norfolk State (34-28 on Nov. 15). The DSU defense finished the 2008 season ranked No. 13 in the nation in total defense and No. 5 in the nation in passing defense.

In 2007, he led the Hornets to a school-record 10 wins, their first Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) championship since 1991 and first ever appearance in the NCAA playoffs. In addition, the 2007 Hornets were ranked as high as No. 10 in the weekly SportsNetwork Football Championship Sub-division poll and were No. 15 in the final poll.

Delaware State was recognized as 2007 American Sports Wire Division I Black College National Champions and No. 2 in the final Sheridan Broadcast Network poll of Historically Black College & University teams.

Lavan was honored as the 2007 Pigskin Club of Washington, D.C., MEAC Coach-of-the-Year and Football Championship Subdivision Region II Coach-of-the-Year.

He was second in the voting for the 2007 Eddie Robinson Award, recognizing the top Football Championship Sub-division coach, and was

The Fort Pierce, Fla., native was also selected as head coach for the 2008 American Heritage Bowl/Navy-Marine Corps All-Star Classic in San Clemente, Calif. He guided the Northeast All-Stars to a 24-7 victory in the contest.

In 2006, the Hornets were 8-3 overall and 6-2 in the MEAC. It marked the first time that DSU posted back-to-back winning seasons since 1994-95, while the eight wins were the most by the team since 1991. Delaware State also appeared in the SportsNetwork Division I-AA Top 25 poll for the first time since 1992, coming in at No. 23 in week ten.

Lavan's 2005 squad posted the Hornets' first winning season since 2000. The team was 7-4 overall, and third in the MEAC with a 6-2 record. Delaware State was picked to finish sixth in the 2005 pre-season MEAC poll. The 2005 season also marked the first time since 1985 that the Hornets posted an undefeated record at home (5-0).

During his first season at Delaware State in 2004, Lavan led the Hornets to a 4-7 overall record and a 4-3 mark in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC), DSU's first winning record in conference play since 2000.

The year before Lavan's arrival, the Hornets lost their first nine games en route to a 1-10 overall record.

The highlight of the 2004 season was Lavan's first DSU victory, a 28-23 upset of eventual MEAC champ Hampton, the Pirates' only loss in a 10-1 regular season.

More than the on-field improvement, Lavan has brought a change of attitude to the program.

In addition to installing the first comprehensive strength and conditioning program in team history, he spearheaded changes in the team's academic, recruiting, practice and discipline policies. The team is also benefiting from new audio/visual and computer equipment, thanks to a generous donation from prominent alumni spurred by Lavan's outreach efforts to university supporters.

Lavan has also demonstrated concern for his players by initiating a program to bring local and nationally recognized speakers before the team to share their stories. Among the prominent individuals offering words of wisdom are former Hornet offensive lineman Matt Horace, currently an agent with the Federal Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms; Joe Purzycki, former DSU head football coach and current bank executive; former pro quarterback and current NFL executive James Harris; and former Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker.

The team's commitment to public service is also a Lavan priority. The past four years, the Hornets have hosted holiday parties for area foster children, participated in reading programs at local schools, and provided mentoring services.

All of the above has made Lavan a popular guest on the banquet and speaking circuit during his short time in Delaware.

Lavan brought more than 30 years of professional and collegiate coaching experience to Delaware State.

Prior to accepting the Delaware State position, Lavan served for two seasons as an assistant coach at Eastern Michigan University. He was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2003 football season, and upon the late-season firing of then-head coach Jeff Woodruff, Lavan was named interim head coach. After he took over the 1-8 team, Eastern Michigan won two of its final three games.

In more than 18 years as a NFL assistant, Lavan's resume' includes stints with the Atlanta Falcons, Dallas Cowboys, San Francisco 49ers, Baltimore Ravens, and the Kansas City Chiefs.

He was a member of George Seifert's 1990 Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers' coaching staff. That team included former Delaware State University standout John Taylor, who caught a touchdown pass in the 49ers' 55-10 win over the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV.

In Dallas, Lavan worked under Hall of Fame head coach Tom Landry. He helped Cowboy running backs Tony Dorsett and Herschel Walker combine for six 1000-yard seasons.

He helped lead Dallas to division titles in 1981 and '85, and wild card playoff berths in 1980 and '83.

Lavan has also served as position coach for NFL all stars Roger Craig, Priest Holmes, Tom Rathman, Ernest Byner, Robert Newhouse and Bam Morris.

Lavan's collegiate coaching tenure includes stops at Colorado State, Louisville, Iowa State, Georgia Tech, Stanford, and Washington. He helped guide Georgia Tech to the 1978 Peach Bowl, and Washington to the 1993 Rose Bowl and 1995 Sun Bowl.

While under Lavan at Washington, Napoleon Kaufman rushed for a then-school record 1,390 yards in 1994 and had 1,851 all-purpose yards in 1993. He played seven NFL seasons before retiring in 2001.

Head Coach AL Lavan

After a standout career at Colorado State University, Lavan was selected as a defensive back by the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles in the eighth round of the 1968 draft. He also played two seasons for the Atlanta Falcons before his professional career was cut short by a neck injury.

Lavan earned a bachelor's degree from Colorado State in 1968. Lavan is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Black Coaches Association.

He and wife Bess are the parents of three children, Travis, Doug and Maeleeke.

2009 DSU Recruiting Class

The Delaware State Football Team added 16 newcomers to its roster. Comprised of 13 high school recruits, three junior college transfers and two Division I transfers, this year's class is considered to be one of the best in recent years.

"This is the strongest class both academically and athletically that we've had," said Lavan. "This is the first year that we have had significant improvement in the quality of recruits entering this program. We are excited about the ability to stabilize some areas on offense, defense and special teams. The mid-years (student-already enrolled at DSU) will come in and add to our team. In the long run, a class like this will help strengthen many of our positions."

Eleven players join the offensive side of the ball, including three offensive linemen (two incoming freshmen, one junior college transfer). The Hornets also added size at wide receiver with junior college transfer Geoff Hick (6-5/200 from Alfred State JC) and depth at tight end with addition of Philadelphia, Pa., products Kristian Johnson (Bonner High School) and Ryan Langdon (Father Judge High School).

Also expected to influence this year's Delaware State offense will be Division I transfers Chris Johnson (Boston College) and Tahree McQueen (Cincinnati). Both players redshirted with their respective teams during the 2007 season and did not play during the 2008 campaign. Both Johnson and McQueen are currently enrolled at Delaware State.

On the defensive side of the ball, the Hornets added seven players including five on the defensive line.

Nine different states are represented by this year's class with four players coming from the state of Virginia.
